

Jason Brodeur Endorsed by Every Seminole County Mayor

Bipartisan Coalition of Seven Local Leaders Announce Support for Brodeur's Campaign for Florida Senate

Sanford, FL (January 28, 2019) - Today, Jason Brodeur announced that all seven mayors of the municipalities in Seminole County have endorsed his campaign for Florida's Senate, District 9.

The bipartisan coalition of local leaders recognize Brodeur's commitment to the unique needs of Seminole County and his extensive record fighting for the vulnerable families and local businesses who call our community home.

"I'm honored to receive endorsements from these local leaders," Brodeur said. "As someone who is proud to seek bipartisan solutions for the local issues facing our cities, earning the support of these mayors means a great deal. Each one of these leaders have worked incredibly hard to make Central Florida such a great place to live and do business, and I look forward to continue working with all of them."

Each mayor released a statement below:

"Time and time again, Jason Brodeur has stood up for our most vulnerable. Since his first term, Jason has championed and passed legislation that protects our children, preserves our clean water supply and keeps our neighborhoods safe. His focus on workforce development and innovation are important to keep Florida competitive in the future and that earns my support. I gladly offer my endorsement for his Florida Senate campaign." – Mayor Pat Bates, Altamonte Springs

"I'm proud to endorse Jason Brodeur for the state senate. As a state representative, Jason always took the initiative on local projects which had a direct benefit to lives in our community, including the Casselberry flyover and other much-needed road improvements. I look forward to what he will continue to accomplish as a state senator." – Mayor Charlene Glancy, Casselberry

"Jason Brodeur understands that for our local businesses to succeed, government needs to get out of the way. As someone who shares the same low-tax and pro-business philosophy, I'm excited to endorse Jason's campaign for the Florida Senate and I look forward to continuing our work together." – Mayor Charles Lacey, Winter Springs

"As someone who understands what it takes to keep our vibrant small business community thriving, I am proud to endorse Jason Brodeur for the Florida Senate. Whether through cutting taxes or maintaining a common-sense regulatory environment in which businesses can succeed, Jason has proven his commitment to economic development in Central Florida." – Mayor David Mealor, Lake Mary

"For as long as he represented our community in the Florida House of Representatives, Jason Brodeur never wavered from his commitment to lower taxes and enacting economic development policies that empower our local businesses. I am proud to endorse his candidacy for the Florida Senate, where I'm confident he will continue to invest in the success of our community." – Mayor Ben Paris, Longwood

"As a graduate of Oviedo High School, Jason has always been a member of our community and understands the importance of preserving and protecting our shared values. His exemplary record fighting for businesses and families in the Florida House speaks for itself, and I am proud to endorse his campaign for State Senate." – Mayor Dominic Persampiere, Oviedo

"I'm a strong believer in having a local voice for our community in Tallahassee. As a resident of Sanford, we can trust Jason to fight for the unique issues facing our community and the families and businesses who call it home. I'm proud to support his candidacy for the Florida Senate." - Mayor Jeff Triplett, Sanford

Jason Brodeur was born in Daytona Beach, Florida and graduated from Oviedo High School. After working for Procter and Gamble for 11 years, Jason started his own health care consulting company headquartered in Sanford, Florida and is currently CEO/President of the Seminole County Regional Chamber of Commerce.

###

For more information, please contact Alan Byrd at 407-415-8470 or alan@byrdconnections.com